

SCHEDULE OF CELEBRATION EVENTS

Tuesday August 8, 2006

Join us at noon on Tuesday, August 8 as we welcome City of Baltimore Mayor Martin O'Malley to dedicate the Harry & Jeanette Weinberg Waterfront Park and declare "National Aquarium in Baltimore 25th Anniversary Day."

After the short ceremony and dedication, visitors are invited to enjoy a fabulous fish-shaped birthday cake by Food Network star Duff Goldman of Charm City Cakes.

25 Days of Public, Family-Friendly Activities Beginning August 8

Meet the Experts Lectures

Monday August 14, 21 and 28

Talk with Aquarium experts and special guests on Mondays during the anniversary celebration. Topics are "Playtime for the Animals" on the 14th; "Building a Naturalistic Habitat" on the 21st; and book-signing and lecture with David Helvarg and Jim Toomey, authors of 50 Ways to Save the Ocean, on the 28th.

Tuesday Night at the Movies

Tuesday August 8, 15, 22 and 29

Enjoy free family movies in the Weinberg Waterfront Park. Shark Tale, The Incredible Mr. Limpet and other aquatic films begin at 8:30pm each Tuesday through the celebration.

Celebrate the Chesapeake

Wednesday August 9, 16, 23 and 30

Participate in fun, hands-on activities in the Weinberg Waterfront Park and discover how to help the Chesapeake Bay every Wednesday during the 25-day celebration.

Wine Tasting and Jazz

Thursday August 10, 17, 24 and 31

Adults are invited to enjoy some of Australia's best wines while listening to a jazz trio – a tribute to Animal Planet Australia: Wild Extremes and the Aquarium's silver anniversary.

Wild Animal Fridays

Friday August 11, 18, 25 and September 1

For four Fridays, Aquarium visitors will meet some of the animals from Animal Planet Australia: Wild Extremes up-close and personal.

Search for Silver

August 12, 13, 19, 20, 26 and 27

During the three weekends of the silver anniversary celebration, kids are invited to join a living treasure hunt by using clue cards to find eight of our silver-colored fish.
