

MORE FUN IN EVERY SENSE

GRADE A STUDENT NIGHT AT THE NATIONAL AQUARIUM IN BALTIMORE

Thursday, June 26, 2008, 6:30 - 9 p.m. (Last person admitted at 8 p.m.)

YOU'VE WORKED HARD
ALL YEAR

Attention Baltimore City and County students: The National Aquarium in Baltimore invites all students boasting three or more A's to our exclusive annual celebration! If you received three or more grades equal to or above 90 percent in any one marking period during the 2007-2008 school year, you qualify as a Grade A Sea Star!

To participate, you must:

- Attend a Baltimore (City or County) public, private, or parochial school
- Be enrolled in grades K-12
- Present your 2007-2008 school year report card from any marking period bearing three or more A's at the entrance
- Be accompanied by an adult, who will also be admitted at no charge
- Register by June 25, 2008

Here's what's on deck:

- Explore the Animal Planet Australia: Wild Extremes habitat
- See the Frogs! A Chorus of Colors exhibit
- Watch a special evening feeding at the Wings in the Water exhibit
- Visit thousands of incredible creatures
- Experience a fourth dimension with mist, wind, and scents in the 4-D Immersion Theater
- Music, fun, and a special guest!
- Animal Encounters

Other family members will be admitted at a special rate of $4 per person. Space is limited.

For more information, please call 410-659-4200 or visit aqua.org

NATIONAL AQUARIUM IN BALTIMORE®

501 East Pratt Street, Baltimore, Maryland 21202 • aqua.org

For the past 25 years, the National Aquarium in Baltimore has inspired millions of school children, the next generations to care for the Chesapeake Bay and the world's oceans.

♻️ Printed on recycled paper, preserving habitats for all wildlife. 5/08